 Holland America Line
A Signature of Excellence

With this cruise we celebrate 30 years of hot jazz on the high seas and what a wonderful voyage it has been! Being truly blessed with the greatest jazzbands and jazzfans, we have sailed to ports-of-call in the Mediterranean, Baltic and British Isles. To Alaska, Mexico, the Caribbean and the Panama Canal. To Tahiti, Hawaii and the Canadian Maritimes and New England Coast. We thank you for all of your support during these 30 wonderful years. Cheers!

The Climax Jazz Band from Toronto has been on JazzSea cruises for nearly 15 years. They can be seen and heard at local clubs and restaurants in Toronto to jazz festivals on the West Coast.

The Grand Dominion Jazz Band from the Pacific Northwest has also been on JazzSea cruises since the mid-1990s. They regularly headline jazz festivals from coast to coast and abroad with their US/UK style of jazz.

The Bob Schulz "Frisco" Jazz Band from the San Francisco Bay area play a West Coast style of jazz and have been on JazzSea cruises for over a dozen years and are regulars at festivals around the country.

The Buck Creek Reunion Jazz Band returns for an exclusive appearance with us to help celebrate the 30 year voyage of JazzSea. They were on our third cruise in 1985 and were with us on nearly every one afterward, before their retirement in 2009.

Tim Allan will entertain us with his banjo virtuosity and will direct the Banjos Aweigh sessions for passengers who bring their instruments aboard to play and sing.

Dick Williams heads up our JazzSea Jammer sessions. Bring your instrument and get in on the fun of playing with your fellow JazzSea passengers.

Karla West's JazzSea Workshops will help you polish your playing skills and her morning sing-a-longs are a great way to start the day. The JazzSea U sessions will be taught by world renowned jazz musicians and will help bring you to the next level of your musicianship.
